Requests that the amount due to him under the Civil Officer's award, viz, Rs 6000 - 1900, i.e, R. 4100, for the occupation of his Samasikalli Estate by the British military authorities, may be caused to be paid to him.

The Civil Officer's award of Rs 6,000 was not accepted by the military authorities. They were prepared to raise the compensation from Rs 1900 to 2500 as a final offer. It was also stated that if Mr. Raghunatha Rao did not accept it, there was no alternative for him but to take such other action as he may deem suitable. This was communicated to Mr. R. Rao & he was not prepared to accept it.

Sir,

I beg to submit that the British Military authorities occupied my "Sannyasahalli" estate in November and December 1921 without my permission and did considerable damage to my property. I brought the matter to the notice of the Deputy Commissioner Bangalore who was kind enough to inspect the estate and to assure me that the Civil Officer who was on the spot would award me damages for the losses entailed on me. I submitted my bills to the extent of Rs. 10000/- and the Civil Officer after verification in conjuction with the military officers awarded me only Rs. 6000/-. Out of this amount I was paid Rs. 1900/- and I was assured that the remaining amount would be speedily paid to me, vide his letter No. C 502 J 2 6-3-22 Dated 6th March 1922 copy enclosed.

After that in spite of my repeated demands no further payment has been made to me. But the Deputy Commissioner
